

C-5. Cultural Resource Info from State Historic Preservation Division Website

Information about historic sites in Hawaii may be accessed via the State Historic Preservation Division (SHPD) website.

1. Go to the SHPD website: <http://www.hawaii.gov/dlnr/hpd/hpgreeting.htm>
2. On the SHPD homepage, click Inventory of Historic Properties in the middle of the page.
3. On the "Inventory of Historic Properties" page:
 - a. Click Geographic Information System to access an inventory of all known historic properties in Hawaii.
 - On the "Experimental Data Base Server" page, you can either.
 - Do a text based SEARCH OF MORE THAN 4800 TITLES IN THE DIVISION'S LIBRARY or
 - If you have a graphical browser you can SELECT A GEOGRAPHIC AREA TO NARROW YOUR SEARCH.
 - b. Click Hawai'i and National Register of Historic Places to access a listing of significant properties which have been places the Hawai'i Register of Historic Places. Follow the instruction provided, to navigate within SHPD's Historic Register pages.
4. For additional information about historic and cultural sites you may click on the various SHPD programs or the other resources listed.